Term 2 Week 8 Wednesday 13 June

Welcome parents / caregivers to Week 8 at Glenview this term!

This week has been a busy week at Glenview. Renovations continue on Rms 8 & 9 and the new toilet block—this is going according to plan.

Support Staff Day 13 June 2012

Today we have recognised the achievements and efforts of our support staff in the school with teachers & management providing a delicious morning tea which was much appreciated by all concerned. Support staff at Glenview include Teacher Aides, Librarian, Office Administrators and our Caretaker, all of whom have an important part to play in the smooth running of the school.

Education Announcements

It was great to see the government reversal of policy regarding class sizes. Thank you for your support in this.

PTA — Lunch Orders

After reviewing the school lunches at Monday's meeting the PTA have decided to change the delivery time to the afternoon break of 1.20pm. This will allow sufficient time for food to be heated properly. This takes effect from Friday 23 June, so lunch orders this week will still be delivered for the first break. Lunches still need to be ordered at the school hall before 8.55am.

Oxford Pies

The PTA are running this popular fundraiser again this year. Order forms will be sent home next week. Details about these will be found further on in this newsletter.

BOT Meeting

The June BOT meeting is on tonight in the library at 7.30pm.

Assembly

This week we are celebrating children who have achieved in the Sport and Cultural area. This will include giving out certificates for children placed in the school and interschool cross country.

BOOK FAIR 2012

Our school book fair will be held in Week 11, from Monday 18th June to Wednesday 20th June.

Each class has been timetabled to visit the Library, view the books and complete a "wish list" to take home.

The Library will be open from 8.00am to 4.00pm on these days, so that parents and caregivers can view and purchase books. To make payment easy, an Eftpos machine is available again this year.

Raffle tickets for $30 book vouchers to spend at the book fair, will be sold at school this week on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The cost of these is $1.00 each and they will be sold before school, by senior students, outside the front entrance of the library.

We went to the Marae. I liked the rubbings because you get to colour them with crayons. I also liked the stars on the mat. The activities were fun. We did some long pois. Then we had some kai. Then we went back to the activities. For the star mat you have to throw the stars and if you put them on the mat you get no points. But if you touch the stars on the square mat you get one point. For the rubbings you have to find a statue that is Maori so you can do a copy of it and you have to put your crayon sideways.

On Thursday we went to the Otawhao Marae and before we went in they welcomed us in and after the bell we did some activities like poi. There is some short poi and long poi then we did more activities. We threw stars on the mat. We threw flat things that pretended to be fish. We threw it in a rope. We played with big long sticks. We got to clap our hands then catch them. When we clapped four times we caught the other people's. We did some rakau but everyone got stuck with the last bit. On another activity we had to have a coloured lid because we were playing a game. I had red, Brigham had blue. Later we used the two in the middle. I did some knucklebones but we actually used some rocks. I got stuck.
