Term 4 Week 5 Monday 21 November

Welcome parents / caregivers to Week 5 at Glenview!

This week is a relatively quiet week for pupils as we move into the end of the year.

On Wednesday 1.30pm we are holding a Here we Go meeting for parents of children starting before the end of the year or early next year.

On Friday it is Grandparents day. We will start with a whole school assembly and then grandparents are invited to stay behind and visit their grandchild's classroom. We will provide a cup of tea/coffee at morning tea time.

Australian Maths Competition

Last week certificates were given out to children who took part in the Australian Maths competition. Congratulations to the following students who received the following awards.

Alex Cable, Henry Yao High Distinction (ranked in the top 2%)
Oliver Simpson, Cole Gorringer Distinction (ranked in the top 10%)

Year 4-6 Athletics

Next week on Tuesday the 29th our athletics team will compete at the inter-school athletics at Melville High School. Children will be informed today if they are in the athletics team for next week.

2012 Planning

We are now starting to look at the make up of classes for 2012. If your child is in Yr s 0 - 5 and your child will not be at Glenview next year can you please let the office know.
